IN DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Michael Mullery, Esquire

ON BEHALF OF DHS: Patricia A. Beattie
Assistant District Counsel

APPLICATION: Asylum; withholding of deportation

ORDER:

PER CURIAM. This case was last before us on June 27, 2002, when we summarily affirmed, without opinion, the results of the Immigration Judge's decision denying the respondent's application for asylum and withholding of deportation. The Immigration Judge found that the respondent had not shown that he was persecuted in the Philippines on account of a protected ground. On (b) (6) (b) (6) as amended on (b) (6) the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6) reversed, concluding that the persecution the respondent suffered was inflicted at least in part on account of his political opinion, or a political opinion imputed to him.

In light of the court's decision, we find that a remand is necessary. On remand, both parties will have the opportunity to present and develop evidence regarding current country conditions in the Philippines, and how those conditions might affect this respondent's application for asylum. See Lopez v. Ashcroft, 366 F.3d 799 (9th Cir. 2004). We note that the last hearing in this case was held over 7 years ago. We also note that as past persecution has been shown, the burden of proof now shifts to the Department of Homeland Security to rebut the presumption of future persecution. 8 C.F.R. § 1208.13(b)(1)(ii).

Accordingly, the decision of the Board in this case dated June 27, 2002, is vacated, and the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for further proceedings consistent with this decision and the decision of the court.
